The passengers of the ill-fated Iron Queen say that Crawford, Jackson, Schaub, Mark, Ort, Schriver, Captain Calhoun and Clerk Kerr are deserving of special praise for their coolness and bravery, and that many lives would have been lost if they had not been aboard.

The Insurgents' Cause is Enjoying a Boom.

Over 5,000 Fully Armed Rebels are in the Field.

They are Following the Leadership of Abram, Rabi, Miro, Sarrator, and Carrying on a Guerrilla Warfare.

Key West, Fla., April 5.—Advices from a trustworthy source in Havana are received here. They show that it is definitely known in Havana that over 5,000 fully armed rebels are in the field. When the government troops pursuing them reached Llanos all trace of the insurgents was lost.

The government has learned that Ebrigue Calzao has arrived at Tampa from New York. The authorities are uneasy concerning the whereabouts of Antonio Maceo, and are sending a time ago from Colon with the intention of landing in Cuba. GOOD NEWS.

Business From This On Will Gradually But Steadily Improve.

BALTIMORE, April 5.—The Manufacturers' Record is in receipt of, and will publish, in this week's number, letters from representative business men in all parts of the country, on the prospects of general business improvement.

Among the number quoted are: C. P. Huntington, John H. Inman and Abram S. Hewitt, of New York; M. E. Ingalls, of Cincinnati; Hon. Edward Atkinson, of Boston, and Thos. Beeth, of St. Louis.

The majority of views, while of a conservative tone are to the effect that business from this time on will gradually but steadily improve. ATLANTA, N. Y., April 5.—Wm. Lake was executed by electricity in the state prison here at 12:15 p. m. Lake murdered Emma Louisa Hunt, a fellow servant at the Van Camp homestead, near Carlton, in October of last year. The crime was accompanied by atrocious acts of ferocity and depravity almost beyond belief. The victim's head was beaten to a pulp and her body was treated in a barbarous manner. After the crime Lake fled, but a few days later he was captured. He freely admitted the crime, and did not plead any provocation or excuse. He had deliberately planned, and the details committed to writing, together with a brief story of the murder's life. He said that he had lived in the same house as his victim, but he had professed love for Miss Hunt, but he refused his attentions, and she determined to kill her. Lake, upon his trial, expressed a desire to go to the electric chair, and ever since his conviction he had been a model prisoner, fully welcome to the day of his execution.

The Japanese Flag-Bearer Was Wounded and Col. Aoki Was Killed.

LONDON, April 5.—A dispatch from Tokyo to the Central News says: "Gen. Nodzu reports from Hail-chung that on April 1 he sent a Chinese messenger to the Chinese military commander notifying the commander of the armistice, and requesting a meeting to arrange details. On April 2 he sent a Japanese messenger and a trumpeter requesting an answer from the Chinese commander within twenty-four hours."

On April 3 the messenger and the trumpeter not having returned, Col. Aoki, feeling fully played himself with a white flag as a trumpeter toward the opposite. The Chinese troops began firing, when Col. Aoki halted and signalled with his flag of truce. When he attempted to return the Chinese renewed their firing, wounding the Japanese flag-bearer, and Col. Aoki was obliged to return.

Gen. Nodzu has informed the government at Peking of the armistice.

Now a Honor Stated.

NEW YORK, April 5.—All the curious things that have happened in this curious spot, Wall Street, Thursday's report heard on the stock exchange was that "Victoria is dead." The report was received from Montreal by way of Buffalo by Henry Clevs & Co. It didn't affect the market, but the statement was exciting because of the complications that might arise on the death of the queen. The report was received by the market and investigation demonstrated that the report started in Montreal and had for its foundation that a newspaper had announced the death of Mrs. Para Victoria, the widow of the queen, and the spoken of her as the "Queen of the Victoria hotel."

A Big Verdict.
